

PUTTING THE AUTISM PUZZLE PIECES TOGETHER

BY: JASON BUNN-PARSONS

PUTTING THE AUTISM PUZZLE PIECES TOGETHER

By: Jason Bunn-Parsons

First Edition: April 2013

This material is public domain. Please use all means possible to copy and share it with anyone who can benefit from it. It is also an ongoing work in progress. Current editions will be available as downloadable PDF files at the "Autism Ambassadors Corps" official website:

www.AutismAmbassadors.com

Note: The Autism Ambassadors Corps is NOT YET an official "501c, Non-Profit organization." Therefore, it is NOT YET lawful for us to ask for tax-deductible contributions. However, non-tax-deductible voluntary contributions would be appreciated in so that the AAC can provide free material to parents, teachers, professionals, etc. These contributions will also enable us to offer free conferences and seminars to anyone who would like to host such events, like those we have hosted at Covenant of Grace Christian Fellowship, Phoenix, Arizona, USA, since April 2011. We would especially like to present in smaller rural communities. The major Autism organizations will not provide their HIGH BUDGET formats of "elite" Autism presenters to them because these communities have limited abilities to provide them with financial support. Our LOWEST POSSIBLE BUDGET format makes organizing "TRAVELING BANDS" of Autism presenters to provide conferences and seminars to such communities feasible.